1. Define the Diagonalization Language, \( L_d \).

2. Informally describe why there is no Turing machine that accepts \( L_d \).

3. Are languages accepted by Turing machines closed under complementation? Why or why not?